STYLISH TRAVELLER

Natalie Barr news presenter

There's a tiny seaside town in WA called Dunsborough, where my family has had a house for 40 years. It's an old-fashioned holiday where you walk across the road to the beach, ride bikes, feed the ducks and have a barbie every night on the front lawn. My boys [Lachlan, 6, and Hunter, 2] love it. Another place I'd go back to is The Legian [right; www.lhw.com] in Seminyak, Bali. It's a luxurious resort, but you can also walk into your room with sand on your feet from the beach! Natalie Barr is on Seven Network's Sunrise.
